

Improving Water Quality, Improving Profits, And Reducing Inputs With Cover Crops

July 24, 2019

RSVP by July 15 785-425-6302

Email: kathy.stice@ks.nacdnet.net

Harding Hall
Rooks County Fairgrounds
Stockton, KS

Registration 10:00-10:30am
Lunch Provided: Bigge's
Country Kitchen

Guest Speakers

Cover Crop Experienced Local Area Producers

Michael Thompson
Thompson Farm & Ranch, LLC
Almena, KS

Brice Custer
Custer Farms LLC
Hays, KS

Natural Resources Conservation Service Demonstrations and Available Programs Overview

Rainfall Simulator
Wind Erosion Simulator
Slake Aggregation

Watershed Restoration and Protection Strategies
Environmental Quality Incentives Program
Conservation Stewardship Program

Spring Cover Crops and Their Benefits to Ringneck Pheasants and Other Wildlife

Adela C. Piernicky
Research Technician; Kansas State University, Kansas Cooperative Fish and Wildlife Research

Producer Roundtable Q&A

An Opportunity for producers new to and experienced with cover cropping to ask questions and discuss ideas

Sponsored by: Rooks County Conservation District, in conjunction with NRCS, Waconda WRAPS and Kirwin WRAPS

USDA, NRCS, and Rooks County Conservation District are an equal opportunity employer, provider and lender